

Scam Red-Flags Wallet Card

Financially Sovereign Academy · Module 9: Consumer Protection · Worksheet v0.1 · 2026-07-04

What this is. Scams work by rushing you and scaring you. This one page is a card you can cut out and a checklist for if it happens to you. Fill in your local contacts by hand. Example amounts are examples only; use your own numbers.

1. Red-flags wallet card (cut out and keep)

From Module 9: if you see these, stop and slow down.

- ☐ Pressure to act right now or lose out
- ☐ Asking for gift cards, wire transfers, or crypto to “fix” a problem
- ☐ A stranger who knows your name and claims to be your bank or the government
- ☐ “You won” something you never entered
- ☐ Requests to keep it secret from family or your bank
- ☐ A payment method with no way to get money back

My one rule to remember: real institutions do not rush me or forbid me to check. When in doubt, hang up and call back on a number I look up myself.

2. If I have been scammed: action checklist

Do these as soon as you can. Acting fast can help.

- ☐ Stop all contact with the person
- ☐ Call my bank or card company to report and possibly freeze
- ☐ Change passwords on any account they touched
- ☐ Save messages, receipts, and phone numbers as proof
- ☐ Write down what happened while it is fresh
- ☐ Report it to the places below

3. Where to report (fill in your local numbers)

Look these up in advance so you are not searching in a panic.

Who	Number or website
My bank / card fraud line	_____
Local police non-emergency	_____
National consumer protection agency	_____
Credit bureau to place a fraud alert	_____
A trusted person to tell	_____

4. My personal facts a stranger should never get

Note what you will never give out to an unexpected caller or message.

- ☐ Full account or card numbers
- ☐ One-time codes or passwords
- ☐ My government ID number
- Other I will guard: _____

5. Pressure and trap reminder

From Module 9: urgency plus secrecy plus an unusual payment method is the scam pattern. Any two of those together mean pause.

- The excuse a scammer might use on me: _____
- My calm response, said out loud: _____

6. My next 7-day action

One small thing I will do in the next 7 days: _____

Educational information, not financial advice. Financially Sovereign Academy.