

My One-Page Personal Plan

Financially Sovereign Academy · Module 10: Financial Master Plan · Worksheet v0.1 · 2026-07-04

What this is. A plan you can hold in one hand beats a perfect plan you never finish. This one page pulls the whole course into a single sheet you can print and post. Fill it in by hand. Example amounts are examples only; use your own numbers.

1. My one goal

From Module 10: one clear goal beats five vague ones.

- The one money goal I care about most right now: _____
- Why it matters to me: _____
- My next single action toward it: _____

2. Readiness checklist

Check where you honestly stand today. No shame in blanks; they are your map.

Building block	Where I am
Emergency cushion started (Module 2)	☐ not yet ☐ some ☐ one month
High-interest debt has a plan (Module 5)	☐ not yet ☐ in progress ☐ on track
Retirement match, if offered, is captured (Module 7)	☐ no match ☐ not yet ☐ getting it
I know my monthly cash flow (Module 1)	☐ no ☐ roughly ☐ yes
Right insurance, no waste (Module 8)	☐ not reviewed ☐ reviewing ☐ set

3. Priority order

A common order many people follow. Number them for your own life.

Order	Step
_____	Start a small emergency cushion
_____	Capture any free retirement match
_____	Pay down high-interest debt
_____	Grow the cushion to about one month
_____	Invest steadily for the long term

- My first priority this quarter: _____

4. My sovereignty next step

From Module 10: being financially sovereign means understanding your own money and making your own choices.

- One habit I will keep after this course: _____
- One thing I want to learn more about next: _____
- Who I will tell about my plan to stay accountable: _____

5. Pressure and trap reminder

A plan on paper still needs a date. Vague plans quietly disappear.

- The trap most likely to knock me off course: _____
- My reset move if that happens: _____

6. My next 7-day action

One small thing I will do in the next 7 days: _____
